

SEC. 4. No person shall mix any glucose or grape sugar with sirup, or sugar, intended for human food; and any cheese manufactured from skimmed milk, or from milk that is partly skimmed, shall be branded as skimmed-milk cheese, when the same is offered for sale, or any oleomargarine, suine, beef-fat, lard, or any other foreign substance with any butter, or cheese, intended for human food; or shall mix or mingle any glucose, grape sugar, or oleomargarine, with any article without distinctly marking, stamping, or labeling the article or the package containing the same with the true and appropriate name of such article, and the percentage in which glucose or grape sugar, oleomargarine, or suine enters into its composition. Nor shall any person sell, or offer for sale, or permit to be sold, or offered for sale, any such food, into the composition of which glucose or grape sugar, oleomargarine, or suine has entered, without at the same time informing the buyer of the fact and the proportion in which glucose or grape sugar, oleomargarine, or suine has entered into the composition.

Glucose not to be mixed with sirup.
Skimmed-milk cheese to be branded.
Oleomargarine, etc., not to be mixed with articles for food; same or glucose, etc., not to be mixed with any article without being labeled.

Penalty for first offense;

for second offense;

third offense a felony.

SEC. 5. Any person or persons convicted of violating any provisions of any of the foregoing sections of this act shall, for the first offense, be fined not less than ten dollars ($10) nor more than fifty dollars ($50). For the second offense they shall be fined not less than twenty-five (25) [dollars] nor more than one hundred dollars ($100), or confined in the county jail not more than thirty days. And for the third and all subsequent offenses they shall be fined not to exceed five hundred (500) nor more than one thousand dollars ($1,000), and imprisonment[ed] in the state prison not less than one year nor more than five years.

SEC. 6. All acts or parts of acts inconsistent with the provisions of this act are hereby repealed.

Approved, March 25, 1882.

CHAPTER 171.

DISPOSAL OF INDEMNITY SWAMP-LAND.

S. F. 200.

AN ACT to Authorize the Sale and Conveyance of "Indemnity Swamp-Land" so-called.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Iowa:

May be sold.

SECTION 1. That in all cases where the title to any "indemnity swamp-land," so called, is vested in any county of this state, it shall be competent for the board of supervisors of such county to sell and dispose thereof as herein set forth.

SEC. 2. The board of supervisors shall first cause all tracts or parcels of said land, except as herein otherwise provided, to be appraised by three disinterested persons, to be appointed by said board, who shall go upon the land to be appraised, and make return to the county auditor, under oath, of the fair value thereof.

SEC. 3. The county auditor shall, after the receipt of said appraisal, and within such time as the board of supervisors may direct, cause public notice to be given, for three successive weeks, in some newspaper published in the county where said land is located, inviting bids, in writing, for the purchase of said land, and specifying therein within what time such bids are to be filed with him.

SEC. 4. At the next regular or special meeting of the board of supervisors said bids shall be opened, and the highest bid for each and every tract of land so advertised shall be accepted by resolution of said board, entered upon the minutes, with the yeas and nays upon the passage thereof therein expressed: Provided, said bid is equal to, or exceeds, said appraised value. And said board shall, by such resolution, direct the auditor of said county, upon the compliance with the next succeeding section hereof by said bidder, to execute, in the name of said county, a deed of conveyance for the land so sold said bidder.

SEC. 5. Within ten days after the acceptance of such bid, the person whose bid is so accepted must deposit with the county treasurer one-third of the amount of said bid in cash and take his receipt therefor, and execute his notes to said county for the balance, payable in three years thereafter, with eight per cent interest, payable annually; said notes to be secured by mortgage, duly acknowledged, on said land, which notes and mortgage shall be as valid in law as if made to an actual person; and thereupon said auditor shall deliver said deed for said land, signed and acknowledged by him, with the seal of his office attached, which deed shall have incorporated the resolution aforesaid; and the same shall be effectual in law to pass to said grantee the entire right and title of said county in and to the land therein named, and be admitted to record and read in evidence without further proofs.

SEC. 6. Nothing in this act contained shall be held to require an appraisal of any parcel of land of less than eighty acres, but as to all parcels of land of less than eighty acres said sale and conveyance may be made without such appraisal upon compliance herewith in all other respects.

SEC. 7. No part of this act shall be construed so as to prevent the board of supervisors from rejecting any or all bids received, and whenever any portion of said lands has been advertised the board of supervisors shall have the right to sell the same at any time thereafter, provided the price received be not less than the appraised value thereof.

SEC. 8. This act, being deemed of immediate importance, shall be in force from and after its publication in the Iowa State Reg-

Appraisalment.

Bids to be invited.

Highest bid to be accepted, if equal to appraised value.

Deed.

Payments.

Conveyance.

Parcels of less than 80 acres need not be appraised.

May be rejected.

Publication.

ister and Iowa State Leader, newspapers published at Des Moines, Iowa.

Approved, March 25, 1882.

I hereby certify that the foregoing act was published in The Iowa State Leader March 28, and in the Iowa State Register March 29, 1882.
J. A. T. HULL, Secretary of State.

CHAPTER 172.

SPECIAL ELECTION UPON THE CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT.

Sub. H. F. 442. AN ACT to Submit to a Vote of the People the proposed Amendment to the Constitution prohibiting the Manufacture and Sale of Intoxicating Liquors as beverage within this State.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Iowa:

Special election
June 27, 1882.

SECTION 1. That a special election for the adoption or rejection by the qualified electors of the state of the proposed amendment to the constitution prohibiting the manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquors as a beverage within this state shall be held throughout the state on Tuesday, the 27th day of June, A. D. 1882, and the governor shall issue his proclamation therefor at least thirty days before said election and shall transmit a copy thereof to the sheriff of each county.

Governor's proclamat. on.

Sheriff's notice.

SEC. 2. The sheriff shall give at least ten days' notice thereof by causing a copy of such proclamation to be published in some newspaper printed in the county, or if there be no such paper by posting such copy in at least five of the most public place[s] in the county.

Form of ballot.

SEC. 3. The ballots shall have written or printed thereon, "For the adoption of the amendment," or "Against the adoption of the amendment."

Conduct of election.

SEC. 4. The county auditor shall prepare and furnish to the voting precincts in their respective counties poll-books for said election, and said election shall be held by the same officers and conducted in the same manner and returns thereof made as at a general election.

County canvass.

SEC. 5. The board of supervisors of the several counties shall meet on the first Monday after said election and proceed to canvass the votes in their respective counties. The votes shall be canvassed in the same manner and returns made to the secretary of state to be examined by the executive council as a board of state canvassers as in case of election for state and district officers, and immediately after the canvass of said returns by the State canvass.